

OPERATION BLACK VOTE
CANADA

“SEAT AT THE TABLE”

REFERENCES

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Operation Black Vote Canada's toolkit has been made possible through OBVC's leadership, the financial support from the Federation of Canadian Municipality's Canadian Women in Local Leadership Program, and through the research and technical assistance by SEASONOVA, a BIPOC-led social enterprise based in Ottawa, and Dr. Erin Tolley, Canada Research Chair in Gender, Race, and Inclusive Politics and Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science at Carleton University.

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Seat at the Table training program took place between October 2021 and April 2022 and was sponsored by the Federation of Canadian Municipalities (FCM). We had a great deal of success with the program. There were 12 women enrolled in the program. There were seven who ran in the last municipal election, and five were elected.

OBVC would like to acknowledge and thank the following individuals for presenting and/or speaking during our Seat at the Table Program.

Patricia Sorbara, Akosua Alagaratnam, 360 Research, Tiffany Ford, Adrienne Batra, Ange Valentini, Ruby Latif, Jean Augustine, Stephanie Hoey, Rhiannon Hoyle, Kathy McDonald, Mitzie Hunter, Kristin Murray, Suzy Hansen, Senator Bernadette Clement and Jenna-Louise Palmer.

42 More Black women are being elected to office. Few feel safe once they get there

43 The process of completing this report highlighted some key gaps in information that need to be addressed to better understand the barriers that Black women face to seeking municipal office. For example, there is a lack of race-based data across Canadian municipalities and other levels of government that would provide insight into the experiences of Black candidates and representatives. Consider working towards addressing this data gap.

Either way this opportunity for your supporters to vote early. You should also encourage your volunteers to vote in the advance polls so that they could assist you on election day (E-day). To prepare for the advance polls contact all your supporters especially those have requested a ride to see if they would like to vote in the advance polls. The goal is to get as many people on your supporter list to vote in advance so you have less people to pull out to vote on E-day.
